- कालिप्रसादशास्त्रि

On the banks of river Yamuna, Lord Shyama (kRiShNa) plays Holi. When Radha, along with her friends (sakhis), goes here, then he (Lord Krishna too) comes to play holi with Balarama.

The beautiful hands are holding cloud-like colours (different colours are thrown on each other while playing holi). The one whose forehead is decorated with kumkum (red colour sulphur paste) and kesar (saffron).
Gopalakrishna is (playing) along with the young Gopikas and people (to play holi). Victory to Radha and Shyama who are playing holi.

Vanamali (the one who takes his cows to jungle for their grass - the Lord Krishna) has worn yellow colour clothes, (and) Radha has worn green colour Sari. And both are equally streaming coloured water on each other. And (thus) there is a shower of happiness (everywhere) in the village during the celebration of Holi festival.
