Hinduism, Jainism, Zoroastrianism (Persia, Iran) - these 3 religions have specified the nature of Cow as Holy and its Urine used for ceremonies. Vedic scriptures also clearly mention that Cow Urine has medicinal properties.

Bee-Honey: How is Honey formed? A Bee produces it from its Saliva (Spit), Shit/Urine. Yet it is considered holy, considered as medicine, has properties of Glucose (99%) and 80% people across globe consume it. Honey is specifically mentioned in aayur-veda to be mixed and taken with many herbal powders and liquids. It is the only liquid that can penetrate even into finest and thinnest arteries of human body. Without food and water a person can survive for 1 day, with water can survive for 3 days, but can survive for 6 days with honey-water. A special treatment in aayur-veda for blood purification is to fast from food for 1 day and instead intake honey-water (1 ltr with 2 spoons of pure honey) every hour. Bee: A Bee queen can lay 2000 eggs per day. There can be 40,000 Bees in a hive. It can flap its wings (up-down) 230 times in a second. There is so much science in that small/simple Bee and Honey. Conclusion: There are few things in nature which cannot be explained or interpreted by human. Therefore instead of speculating, it is easier enough to take knowledge from Vedic scriptures which are error-free in scientific and religious concepts as they were directly given by Lord Krishna, God-The-Creator (and documented by Lord Ganesha with his mystic speed when Lord Krishna was reciting through Vyaasa Maha Muni [sakti-aavesha-avataar - empowered soul]).

Cow Urine is very powerful in curing diseases like Cancer, Diabetes and Blood-Pressure. Verses from 5110 yr-old Vedic Scriptures: → Aayur-veda: "go-mutre tridinam sthaapyay visham tena vishudhyati" - "Consumption of Cow Urine for 3 days cleanses poisons." Aayur-veda: "jeevantu avadghnaayah ta me vishsya dushaanih" - "Let Cows live without slaughter till end of their life as they give life by removing poisons and toxins." Aayur-veda: "yatvagasthi gatam paapam dehe tishtati mamke prasnat panchagavyasya dahasaagnirivedhanam" - "From skin to the bones whatever past sins and present diseases are in my body, are destroyed by panchagavya (5 products of Cow) just as fire destroys the source." Aayur-veda: Cow Urine taste is explained as consisting of 5 rasas - bitter, hot (spicy), sour, sweet and salty. Aayur-veda: "gavyam pavitram ca rasaayanam ca pathyam ca hrdyam balam buddhi syaata aayuh pradam rakt vikaar hari tridosha hridroga vishapaham syata" - "Cow Urine (of panchgavya) is holy/pure, possesses nectars, a proper diet, pleasing to heart, gives physical & mental strength and bestows longevity. It cleanses blood disorders and balances the 3 doshas (bile, mucous and gases). It removes heart diseases and effects of poison." Mahaabhaarat: "One should never show any disgust towards Cow Urine and Cow Dung..." [Anusaasana-parva Sections 83-87] Mahaabhaarat: "Of all the 84 lakh (8.4 million) species of living entities, only the Cow is such an entity whose Dung is not impure, but rather it purifies every other kind of impurity." Rig Veda: "pancha-gavya - The 5 products of the Cow (milk, curds, ghee, urine, dung) are used for agni-hotra (fire sacrifices) and also for bathing of a new deity before installation." Mahaabhaarat: "The Cow is my mother and the Bull is my sire. The Cow is in fact my refuge." [13.56.4]

Killing a Human or Cow (especially in India) is a dreadful, intolerable and punishable offense. Please raise your strong voice to protect the Cow irrespective of whatever caste, community or religion you belong to.

Message to Indians: Till there are not sufficient organizations to care-take all the cows, let them have a natural life and death, but do not allow anyone to have her/his axe fall on them. Keep count and an eye on the Cows in your area.
