

For Smt. Pushpa Srivatsan, Mother Ganga is everything. Her association with Ganga is long and intimate. The very name transports her to another plane. She has brought out all her experiences in the form of this unique creation, Gangasahasram, a cascading stream of Sanskrit poems. It is long, pure, beautiful and inspiring like Ganga Herself. Reading this devotional poetry is like taking a dip in the cool, soothing waters of the Ganga. Her descriptions in detail about the sacred places Gomukh, Gangotri, etc. upto Ganga Sagar take us to these very places.

May Mother Ganga bless Smt. Pushpa to continue her marvellous literary creativity.
