that country, because they are blessed with all the four goals of life, to wit, dharma, artha, kama and mokSha. They are able to have darshan of the Lord Pashupati whom even devas cannot see directly.

Nepal is described as a gem amongst holy places. The Skanda Puranam further says that the people there will be calm, and will have other good qualities. The place is situated in high mountains, among dense forests and has remarkable scenic beauty; and in such wonderful surrounding shines Lord Pashupatinath as the very embodiment of wisdom. (Nepala mahatmyam. 7-54).

It was a Hindu kingdom, the only one in the world, till recently. Here, in Nepal, Lord Pashupati is seen as a lingam, nearly four feet high, and with five faces - four facing the four directions and the fifth facing up. The pujaries draw the Shri Chakra on the lingam daily before commencing the puja.

The full moon day (paurnami ) is specially celebrated when a huge quantity of rice is cooked along with vegetables. The rice is shaped as a lingam and offered to the Lord and deeparadhanam is performed. The temple attracts huge crowds on Shivaratri day when people throng to the temple during the entire day to have darshan of the Lord.

FIVE FACES OF SHIVA:- Because of his five faces Shiva has the name पञ्चरुपकः। पञ्चरुपाकानि वक्राणि मुखानि नानारूपाणि यस्य स तथा । (Shivasahasranamam-Padmapuranam). These faces have the following names, ईशान, तत्पुरुष, अघोर, वामदेव, and सचीजात. These faces face up the sky, East, South, North and West respectively. It seems that a lingam with five faces as described here is to be seen only in the Pashupati temple in Nepal and the temple attached to the Shankara math in Tiruvanaikkaval near Trichy. The hymn given in the beginning has salutations to the five faces of the Lord.

We have the salutations to Shiva’s five faces in Mahanyasam that is chanted before chanting the vedic hymn Shri Rudram. There are two Nyasams, the Mahanyasam and the Laghunyasam. Maha(महत्) means big. Laghu (लघु) means light, not heavy. The Mahanyasam is a part of the methodology of chanting of the Rudram on special occasions such as Pradosham, Shivaratri. Typically, during a Rudra parayanam at home, one recites the Laghunyasam. Such a Shri Rudra parayanam in a public place of worship such as a temple is preceded by the recital of the Mahanyasam. As the name difference indicates, the Laghunyasam is shorter. The Mahanyasam invokes the deity of Shri Rudra in His many forms of Indra, Agni, Yama, Varuna etc in the different limbs (anga’s) of the one who chants. Such an invoking is done to seek the blessings of the Lord, and at the same time giving one and all a feeling of immediate presence of the Lord in the vicinity of the chanting. The Mahanyasam has certain sections of the Shri Rudram, the Purusha Suktam etc repeated in it. The Shiva samkalpam is also part of this. The prayers addressed to the five faces of Shiva are given below.

The above verse is in salutation of Tatpurusha facing East.

The hymn given in the beginning has salutations to the five faces of the Lord.
The above verse is in salutation of Aghora facing South.

The above verse is in salutation of Sadyojata facing West.

The above verse is in salutation of Vamadeva facing North.

The above verse is in salutation of Ishana facing up - the sky.
THE SIGNIFICANCE OF FIVE FACES ;-) What is the significance of Shiva being said to have five faces? This is explained in detail by Shri Nilakanta DikShita in his commentary called Shivatattva rahasyam to Shiva 108 Namavali. The name पशुपति: is the 52nd name in the namavali. A section from the elaborate commentary is given below.

A full discussion of this topic is beyond the scope of this writeup. One may have to approach a scholar for further details on this subject.

‘Pashupati’ means the protector of the kine. Every thing in creation from Brahma the creator down to immovables are known as pashus. Shiva is known as Pashupati since He is their Lord. The name occurs in vedas (eg) in Shri Rudram that says.

It also occurs in the Shiva 108 namavali (no.92) and Shiva 1000 namavali. In the Shiva sahasranamam(Padmapuranam) (No.44) we find the following.

Nepal is therefore known as Pashupatipuri after the Lord.

The river Vangmati flows close to the temple of Pashupati. The waters from the river are used for the daily ablutions in the temple. It is said that after Lord Narasimha appeared, killed the demon king and blessed...
Pralhada. Then He disappeared from the scene. Prahlada was greatly disappointed at this. He wanted to see the Lord again and did severe penance. Lord Shiva was impressed by this and laughed in happiness. Water flowed from His mouth at that time and turned into a river. The river that flowed from His mouth came to be known as Vangmati. (From Nepala Mahatmyam).

Lord Shiva blessed Prahlada that his devotion to Hari will remain firm.

Nepal also has the river Gandaki. Shaligrama stones are found in the river bed. They are symbolic of Lord Vishnu. Shrimad Bhagavatam makes a reference to the river in Book 5 - chapter 7 when it narrates the story of King Bharata. This country came to be known as Bharata Varsha after this king only. The king, after ruling over the country for a long time renounced everything and repaired to the forests to the hermitage of Sage Pulaha situated on the banks of river Gandaki. It is said that Lord Hari reveals His form to His devotees there in the ashram even today. The holy river Chakranadi (Gandaki) hallows on both sides the places of this ashrama through contact with circular (wheel like) pebbles on both sides. This place is known as the ShaligramakShetra.
HISTORICAL NOTES:-
The documents in the National Archives of Nepal reveal that Shri Shankaracharya visited Nepal during his travels around the country. He had discussions with the then king of Nepal who was a Buddhist and weaned him away from Buddhism to Hinduism. He made changes to the way pujas were being done in Pashupatinath temple and arranged to have regular pujas done by priests got from South India. Four priests, properly trained in the temple procedures and reciting the Vedas perform the pujas to the four faces on the four sides. These facts are also to be seen in the text Punyashloka manjari that deals with the history of the Kanchi Shankara math. It also says that Shri Vipulananda Sadashiva - the 53rd acharya in the lineage of acharyas of the math visited Nepal. He was warmly received by the king and honoured by him. The following verse in the text says that.

This fact is also mentioned as in the Vyasachaliya Shankaravijayam ..

Shri Vyasachala was the disciple of Shri Vipulananda Sadashiva and succeeded him as the 54th head of the math. He is the author of Vyasachaliya Shankaravijayam. The details show that the Shri Vipulananda Sadashiva visited Nepal when it was in the grip of severe famine. He blessed the state and brought relief from the severe famine.

Now, before concluding, let us ponder as to what we should seek from Lord Pashupati. Shri Shankaracharya, in his Shivanandalahari (verse No.68) shows us the way. Let us join him in this moving appeal to Lord Pashupati.

Pashu(पशु) means cattle in general. Here the acharya takes it to mean... a cow. The ‘cow’ in this instance is devotion or bhakti. Lord Pashupati is the owner of the cow. The acharya requests the Lord to take care of the bhakti ‘cow’ and nourish it or, in other words, make his devotion to Him firm and unwavering. The cow shed will generally be unclean. But the bhakti cow will not stay in unclean places. It stays in a very clean place (viz.) the Lord’s feet.

विमल-भवत्यद-गोष्ट्रावसन्तीम= clean, pure. भवत्यद-गोष्ट्रावसन्तीम = staying in the cow-pen of your feet. गोष्ट्र = cowpen. This implies that the place where bhakti resides is a very exalted one. The ordinary cow can give only milk, in limited quantities and that too at specific times only. This bhakti cow is capable of giving us many good things - and that too all the time and in abundance and most importantly the nectar called ‘bliss’. So, अमृतं मुद्रां भवत्यद-गोष्ट्रावसन्तीम। अमृतं = unlimited. मुद्रां = joy, happiness. अमृतं = nectar. भवत्यद-गोष्ट्रावसन्तीम = yielding. मुद्रां = often, frequently. The cow will be tied to a peg fixed to the ground. Bhakti is the result of good deeds or punyam done in many births. So, the bhakti cow is tied to the peg that is the frution of good deeds or punyam done in numerous births सुपुष्प गोष्ट्रा मुद्रां भवत्यद-गोष्ट्रावसन्तीम। The Lord is requested to take care of such a cow. Lord Pashupati is addressed as सदय पशुपते = O! the compassionate Pashupati!. This indicates that the Lord has a kind heart and will certainly listen to our pleading.
